RE: Permit PERMIT NUMBER
COUNTY County, ROUTE

Dear OWNER CONTACT:

As a follow-up to our previous conversation, the Missouri Department of Transportation does not require a permit for signs advertising goods or services located on-premise.

RSMo 226.520

On and after March 30, 1972, no outdoor advertising shall be erected or maintained within six hundred sixty feet of the nearest edge of the right-of-way and visible from the main traveled way of any highway which is part of the federal-aid primary highways as of June 1, 1991, and all highways designated as part of the National Highway System by the National Highway System Designation Act of 1995 and those highway subsequently designated as part of the National Highway System in this state except the following:

(2) Signs, displays, and devices advertising activities conducted on the property upon which they are located, or services and products therein provided;

A permit from the Missouri Department of Transportation is not required for on-premise signs. Please contact your local zoning authority for information regarding their permit requirements.
